Simple beauty is a great virtue and one should always be the owner of it. It is a real and beautiful form of happiness and it is the only one that is truly yours.

Beauty is not the thing and neither is it a quality. It is an act. It is the way we live. It is the way we think. It is the way we feel. It is the way we are. It is the way we are. It is the way we are. It is the way we are.
