I'm a passionate believer in the inherent creativity possessed by all people and our inherent ability if it's not clouded by convention—to appreciate authentic beauty in all forms, whether we like it or not.

The beauty of a woman is not in the clothes she wears, the figure that she carries, or the way she combs her hair. The beauty of a woman is seen in her eyes, because that is the doorway to her heart, the place where love resides. True beauty in a woman is reflected in her soul.

It's a precious treasure in the inherent creativity possessed by all people and an inherent ability if it's not created by someone - it appears authentic beauty in all forms, whether we like it or not.
