

RAPATH®
"The Secret of Style"

Elegance
the art of fashion

RAPATH®
"The Secret of Style"

COMPLIMENTARY COPY NOT FOR SALE

BANDHAN PATOLA

A Patola silk saree is a treasure and heritage woven with a double dye weaving technique, indigenous from the Patna region of Bihar, India. These sarees are made using silk threads that are dyed in natural colors and then woven together to create the intricate patterns and designs. Patola silk sarees are known for their vibrant colors, bold geometric designs, and intricate weaving, which make them highly prized and sought after by women across all ages and social classes. These sarees are usually worn on special occasions, such as weddings and festivals, and are a beautiful symbol of the rich cultural heritage and craftsmanship of Bihar.

RAPATH®
The Grace of India
PATOLA SILK
162001

RAPATH®
 The Spirit of India
PATOLA SILK
 162002

A Patola silk saree is a luxurious and timeless piece, made using a traditional hand-weaving technique, traditionally from the Patna region of Bihar, India. These sarees are made using silk threads that are hand-dyed with natural colors and then woven together to create the intricate patterns and designs. Patola silk sarees are known for their vibrant colors, bold geometric designs, and intricate weaving, which make them highly prized and sought after by many people all over the world. These sarees are usually made for special occasions, such as weddings and festive events, and are a beautiful symbol of the rich heritage and craftsmanship of India.

RAPATH
The Saree of India
PATOLA SILK
162003

LUXURIOUS LOOK

A Patola silk saree is a luxurious and ancient saree made using a strictly hand-weaving technique, traditionally from the North region of Odisha, India. These sarees are made using silk threads that are hand-dyed with natural colors and then woven together to create the intricate patterns and designs. Patola silk sarees are known for their vibrant colors, bold geometric designs, and intricate borders. They are made from high-quality silk and are known for their durability and longevity. These sarees are perfect for special occasions and are a beautiful blend of traditional Odia culture and craftsmanship.

RAPATH
The House of Style
PATOLA SILK
162006

A Parsi girl wears a traditional and authentic saree made using a fabric that is not an indigenous (originally) from the Parsi region of Gujarat, India. These sarees are made using only domestic silk and have been used for many years to create the authentic patterns and designs. Parsi girls wear the saree in their vibrant colors, both geometric designs, and intricate detailing, which adds their bright and vibrant colors to the saree. These sarees are made from the special materials, such as silk and cotton, and are a beautiful blend of the rich cultural heritage and craftsmanship of India.

162001

162002

162005

162006

162003

162004

162007

162008

