ANYTHING AT ALL

"Anyone can get dressed up and glamorous, but it is how people dress in their
days off that are the most intriguing."

A woman with long, wavy brown hair is standing outdoors, leaning against a white wooden fence. She is wearing a bright yellow, knee-length kurta with a round neckline and a vertical row of small, dark buttons down the center. The kurta has decorative gold-colored borders at the cuffs and hem. She is also wearing dark blue leggings and maroon high-heeled sandals. In the background, there are green trees, a building with a checkered awning, and a car parked on a street.

"You gotta have style.
It helps you get down the stairs. It helps you get up in the morning. It's a way of life. Without it, you're nobody.
I'm not talking about lots of clothes."

"Fashion is part of the daily air and it changes
all the time, with all the events.
You can even see the approaching of a revolution in clothes. You can see and feel everything in clothes."
